Strong, steady nerves
Are needed for success
Everywhere. Nerves
Depend simply, solely,
Upon the blood;
Pure, rich, nourishing
Blood feeds the nerves
And makes them strong.
The great nerve tonic is
Hood's Sarsaparilla,
Because it makes
The blood rich
Purifying it power
To feed the nerves.
Hood's Sarsaparilla
Cures nervousness,
Dyspepsia, rheumatism,
Catarrh, scrofula,
And all forms of
Impure blood.

I went some claps-hands and went to trade a Sewing Machine for them. Went there right away.

403 GROSS WILLIAMS.

I would like to find a location for an induction, electric watchmaker and jeweler. At present there is no workshop of this class in the community.

Messrs. John A. Line, of the Henderson Journal, and J. J. Hazard, of the Louisville Commercial, have been in town with the past few days on business.

Fisher & Sons have secured an extra stable and now have ample room to accommodate all their customers. The politest attention and the best of feed for your horses.

Master Lyons will have accepted a position at the hotel in the dry goods house of Fair & Co. Lyons is an industrious young man and will do no doubt succeed in his new line of business.

I have some good second-hand Sewing Machines that I would be glad to exchange for coat, oots, boy or park. Machines given.

403 GROSS WILLIAMS, Agent.

When buying Christmas presents remember we have Misses' Sashes, Blouse, Flat Robes, fancy Braces and hundreds of other articles to make your friends happy. LINENS & LINEN.

People of the whole community sympathize with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peis in their loss of son, and send their sympathy. The little one was born on January 1st, and could not be resuscitated.

Why do people suffer themselves to be hoodwinked into buying "cheap" cheap clothes? Machines are not to be had. Buy the Stager brand in the world for $3.00 down and $3.00 per month for 100 days.

At about 12:30 o'clock all were invited to partake of a lunch at the Hartford House prepared by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hackett, Capt. Vicksburg, La., and Misses' Boys of Louisville, who were visiting her brother at the Hartford Hotel. The tables were laden with the best the market could afford and spread in the most elegant style. The menu was apparently the same in every particular; nothing could have been nicer. The visiting guests had a most pleasant time.

The visiting ladies were dressed in royal Kentucky style and the men in the latest fashions. The visiting party brought with them one of the best string bands from Liverpool that Western Kentucky could afford.

JAY EPP SEE.

Hanged Himself.

(Litchfield Gazette.) Yesterday (Thursday) morning a telegram was received at the office of the information that Andrew McGrady, who lived about a mile south of West City near the Cross school houses had hanged himself. He had went out to buy some dry goods and had not returned for some time. His wife had gone to see what had detained him and found him dead. He had hung himself.

He had been a drifter and from all appearance the struggle between life and death was agonizing.

They sent for the coroner, T. M. Sisk, who arrived yesterday to hold an inquest.

McGrady was about 50 years old, a substantial farmer and a good Democrat. He was considered in good circumstances, being out of debt and having some money loaned out. He had been unable to earn a living and was unable to learn of the wrongs which caused the despondency that led to his rash act.
